YOUNG MARINE CONTRACT AND OBLIGATION

PLEASE COMPLETE, READ, AND SIGN

Last Name _____ First Name _____

UNDERSTANDING AND CONDITIONS

1. I understand that I am joining the Young Marines of my own free will and desire. I know that the training will be challenging, but I will accept it and shall always try to do my best.

2. I understand that I am bound to obey all orders and instruction given from time to time by instructors, staff and Young Marines appointed over me in accordance to the rules and regulation governing the discipline of the Young Marines.

3. I understand as a Young Marine in good standing I have the following rights:

- Attend scheduled meetings, events and activities that are purposeful, planned and organized.
- Meet in a safe, drug and tobacco-free environment under the supervision of Registered Adults.
- Be treated fairly with dignity and respect.
- Have opportunities to succeed and excel.
- Report any inappropriate action by other Young Marines or adults.
- Receive a copy of the Young Marines Esprit Magazine in the Fall, Winter, Spring, and Summer.

4. Young Marine - Core Values. Every United States Marine upholds the core values of Honor, Courage and Commitment. These values give Marines their strength, regulate their behavior, and bond them together into a force, like no other, capable of overcoming every obstacle and meeting any challenge. The Young Marines' Core values are Discipline, Leadership and Teamwork.

a. Discipline. Discipline requires that Young Marines show instant willingness and obedience to the rules of the Young Marine program, their parent's rules, and the laws of the land. Discipline also dictates a respect for authority. Young Marines will:

- 1) Follow all rules and regulations set forth in the Young Marine Guidebooks and manuals.
- 2) Follow the rules of the home and of their parents, completing chores, obeying curfews, and assisting in the home when needed.
- 3) Follow all laws of our government and have respect for our leaders, police and those in charge of us.

b. Leadership. Leadership is the ability to influence others. A good leader is able to effectively pass on from their leaders all that is expected to be accomplished. A true leader leads by example. Young Marines will:

- 1) Aspire to positively influence the fellow Young Marines all the time.
- 2) Accomplish their mission by completing all tasks assigned by their leaders and those in charge of them from their parents, teachers, coaches and Young Marine adult leaders.

c. Teamwork. Teamwork is co-operation between those working together on a task. To truly understand teamwork, Young Marines must learn to listen to their leaders and peers, ask questions to ensure complete understanding, persuade their team that they can accomplish the mission, respect those on their team and their suggestions, help those on their team to accomplish the mission, share in the glory and the failures of the team, and participate in the task as a member of the team.

Young Marines will:

- 1) Always work together to accomplish the mission..
- 2) Keep their team motivated at all times even when the mission or task is not a popular one.
- 3) Not grab all the glory for a team effort, but spread it amongst all team members.

5. Young Marines Code of Conduct.

a. Article I:

(1) I am an American youth, proud of my country and our way of life. I am prepared to dedicate myself to educating others and myself in the history, traditions, and institutions thereof. I will do my best to live by the core values of Honor, Courage and Commitment, Discipline, Leadership and Teamwork.

b. Article II:

(1) I will never let another Young Marine down of my own accord. If in-charge, I will do my best to ensure the safety and well being of those for whom I am responsible. I will immediately report any suspicious activity or behavior to a registered adult.

c. Article III:

(1) If I am offered drugs, alcohol, or tobacco products, I will politely resist and refuse. I will make every effort to stay clear of situations involving gangs, drugs, alcohol, and tobacco. I will not get involved in the same. I will also aid my friends and schoolmates to stay clear of similar situations.

d. Article IV:

(1) I will always be loyal to my fellow Young Marines. I will make no statements nor take part in any action that may bring discredit to my God, country, family and Young Marines. If I am the senior Young Marine present, I will take charge. If not, I will obey the lawful orders of those senior to me and support them in everyway.

e. Article V:

(1) When asked about the Young Marines Program, I will answer questions politely, respectfully and to the best of my ability. If I am asked a question that I do not know the answer to, I will refer the person asking the question to a registered adult. I will never give information that I am not certain of nor mislead those who are seeking information about the Young Marines Program.

f. Article VI:

(1) I will never forget that I am an American Youth and therefore the future of America, privileged with the freedom won and kept by the blood of those who fought to ensure our freedom. I am responsible for my actions, and dedicated to the principles that made my country free.

YOUNG MARINES OBLIGATION

From this day forward, I sincerely promise, I will set an example for all other youth to follow and I shall never do anything that would bring disgrace or dishonor upon my God, my Country and its flag, my parents, myself or the Young Marines. These I will honor and respect in a manner that will reflect credit upon them and myself. Semper Fidelis.

PHOTO/VIDEO/FILM RELEASE

The Young Marines may encounter the news media, video and film crews, or photographers hired by the Young Marines for the purpose of taking promotional or publicity photographs, video or film. There is a possibility that students and adults attending programs will be photographed. I give my consent to authorize the Young Marines of the Marine Corps League, or any entity or person authorized or designated by them the use and reproduction of any and all photographs, video or film taken of the person named as the subject of this application during Young Marine training or related activities. I understand there will be no compensation to me. All negative and positives, together with said prints, video or film are the property of the Young Marines of the Marine Corps League or the entity or person authorized or designated by it, solely and completely. I also waive any right to inspect or approve any photo, video or film taken during said training or related activities. I affirmatively release and discharge the Young Marines of the Marine Corps League from responsibility for any distortion or manipulation, whether intentional or otherwise, of photos, video or film taken of your child while a participant in the Young Marine Program.

PERMISSION & WAIVER

I/We, the undersign, do hereby certify that I/We have read and fully understand the attached release and waiver; that I/We have fully consented to such release and waiver and expressly give this minor permission to participate in the Young Marines Program. Furthermore, I/we certify that this application is complete, correct, and true to the best of my/our knowledge.

The Young Marines is a youth leadership program for youth (ages 8-18) modeled after, and officially endorsed by, the United States Marine Corps. The Northern Kentucky unit is a group of amazing young people who have joined this program in order to become better citizens, great leaders and examples of integrity for their peers. Our Young Marines meet every other Saturday and work on physical training, close order drill, military & American history, rank structure, public speaking, military courtesy & jargon and much more. These motivated youth go through mandated training (nicknamed Boot Camp) and must pass written, oral and physical tests in order to become a proud member of the Young Marines. Our unit (1 of 300+ units across the U.S., which includes over 12,000 Young Marines nationally) is the proud home of the 2013-14 National Young Marine of the Year.

This program is one of the only (if not the only) youth-led, merit-based programs. The young person who gave you this letter is interested in joining our unit.
